1. The Employee shall be given a summary of charges against him.
2. Before interrogation or making of statements, he shall be allowed the opportunity to obtain the advice of counsel.
3. Any order to make a statement under Garrity shall be a written order, the violation of which would constitute grounds for disciplinary action by the department.

12.2: An employee covered by this Agreement shall not ordinarily be required to perform those duties regularly assigned to subordinate officers and employees and in his supervisory capacity he shall require such subordinate officers and employees to perform their own duties, provided, however, that when, in the opinion of the Chief or in his absence the commanding officer in charge of the shift which is on duty, circumstances concerning the health, safety and welfare of the Township of efficient operation of the police department warrant the assignment of a supervisory employee to a subordinate officer's regularly assigned duties, such assignment shall be made, for a period not to exceed the termination of that supervisory officer's shift for that day.

ARTICLE XIII
LAYOFFS/DEMOTIONS

13.1: Layoffs shall be made in conformity with the principle of seniority, i.e. the last one hired being the first one laid off, and the first one laid off being the last one recalled.

13.2: In the event there is no conflict with the provisions of the collective bargaining agreement between the Charter Township of Waterford and the Waterford Police Officers Association, and the Waterford Police Officers Association agrees in writing, an employee who is laid off may exercise his seniority, in order to avoid such layoff, to select a position in a lower rank, which will result in the reduction in rank or layoff of a less senior employee.

13.3: In the event of any layoffs of bargaining unit members, those members who would be laid off will have the option of a demotion to their previous classification in lieu of being laid off.

13.4: If, after being demoted, the member remains in the command officer bargaining unit, the demoted member shall retain all seniority accrued in the rank held before the demotion; and add it to the seniority previously accrued in the classification to which he is being demoted.

14.2: During any shift cycle, an employee on a particular shift may by mutual consent with another employee on a different shift, exchange shift assignments for a period not exceeding one month during said shift cycle. Such exchanges of shift must be requested of the police chief or his designee who shall have discretion to grant such mutual request if in his discretion such shift changes will not disrupt the efficient operation of the police department.

14.3 Employees shall be permitted to trade or exchange a work or leave day, provided that an employee shall only be permitted to trade or exchange two (2) days per pay period provided no overtime results from the change and subject to the approval of the shift commander, and said traded day must be repaid by a working day and not by a sick day of the employee within the same pay period; provided further that an employee shall not trade or exchange a day's work with another employee so as to give either employee a sixteen (16) hour working day.

A. The term "trade or exchange" shall be defined as a trade or exchange of work or leave days with another employee of the same rank.

Example: Employee "A" is scheduled for a leave day on Friday March 9th and scheduled for a workday on Saturday March 10th.

Employee "B" is scheduled for a workday on Friday March 9th and scheduled for a leave day on Saturday March 10th.

Employee "A" and employee "B" agree to a trade on March 9th and 10th which looks like this:

Employee B will work on Saturday March 10th for employee A as well as assume employee A's leave day on Friday March 9th.

1. Employees shall be permitted to move a previously scheduled leave day to a previously scheduled workday once per month, not to exceed nine times in any calendar year, subject to approval of the shift commander. Any such movement of leave days shall not create overtime and shall be done in accordance with current scheduling standards.
2. Leave days may be moved to accomplish a particular objective such as training and will not count against the above described one per month or nine per calendar year.

14.4: In the event of vacancies in bureaus in the classification of detective/sergeant or lieutenant planned to be filled by the transfer of personnel, the Association shall be advised in writing of the vacancies at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to filling of such vacancies and employees shall have fourteen (14) calendar days from the written notice to the Association to make written application for transfer to the vacant position, provided that the Police Chief may waive such notice and transfer personnel immediately if operating needs of the Police Department require such action. If assignments are to exceed thirty (30) days, the notification procedure shall then be followed and reassignment may then be made at the discretion of the Police Chief, based on the procedure outlined below.

14.5: In making transfer assignments, consideration will be given to fitness for the assigned duties and responsibilities and seniority. Employees shall have the right to discuss with the Police Chief the basis for such assignments. The decision of the Police Chief in the matter of transfer assignments which will exceed thirty (30) days shall be subject to the grievance procedure. Before any member is transferred, he/she shall be given an explanation for such transfer.

14.6: Seniority.

- A. Seniority within rank shall have preference on all primary vacation requests, provided there is no conflict with the provisions of Article XX on the scheduling of vacations.
- B. Seniority within rank shall have preference on leave day selections.

14.7: The language above in this article is not to be interpreted as providing for a member of the Unit to trade days with himself/herself. This does not change the unit member's right to request time off as otherwise provided in this contract.

14.8: Sergeants in the detective bureau shall be paid at the starting lieutenant's pay rate for time assigned as officer in charge of the bureau.

14.9: Road patrol sergeants who are assigned to serve for a period of 20 consecutive days or more, as the officer in charge of the shift, shall be paid at the starting lieutenant's pay rate for time assigned. After 19 days absence of the assigned lieutenant the assignment of the sergeant shall be deemed an acting lieutenant and paid retroactively back to the first day of absence of the lieutenant until the lieutenant's return.

14.10: Assignments under paragraphs 14.8 and 14.9 shall be made by the Chief of Police based on seniority absent a determination by the Chief that the senior sergeant is not fit for the assigned duties and responsibilities.

30.3, any increase in Patrol wages during the term of this agreement will only result in an increase in wages if Command wages fall below the differentials noted in 30.1.

The parties acknowledge that the differential language noted above is designed to assure that the wages for Sergeants and Lieutenants in this bargaining unit do not fall below the percentage differentials noted in #2 above.

Effective retroactive to the first full pay period in July upon ratification of this agreement by both sides and as soon as can be reasonably implemented, thirteen (13) days of holiday pay or 104 hours will be rolled into base salary, and the holiday pay provisions in Article XVI will be modified accordingly to reflect the elimination of this payment prospectively and the date the amount was rolled in.

Effective as noted above upon ratification by both sides and as soon as can reasonably be implemented, $1.15 per hour which was the maximum for shift premium previously will be rolled into base salary for all members of the bargaining unit, and all shift premium payments will be eliminated in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, and language reflecting its elimination and its date will be incorporated in the agreement.

In addition to the wage improvement noted above, an additional $1.50 per hour will be rolled into base salary for members of the bargaining unit as soon as practical after ratification: Retroactive for the same pay period in July.

The wages effective upon ratification and implementation of this agreement are attached.

Effective upon ratification of this agreement, there will be a one-time signing bonus of $1,000 for current employees only.

The one-time signing bonus received in 2023 will be converted in 2024 into an annual gun allowance payable annually in the month of November.

An annual cleaning allowance of $750 will be paid to all members of the bargaining unit in the month of November.

A 3% wage increase will be provided to all members of the bargaining unit effective January 1, 2027.
